Summer Session 2009

Providing a Quality Learn to Skate
Program For All Ages

July 14th—September 4th

Member of United States Figure Skating

Mission Statement

The Center State Figure Skating Club is committed to providing an opportunity for all members of the community to participate in its skating program. The aim is to impress upon the members of this club the high ideals of sportsmanship and fair play. The program will foster participation in skating by offering a standard curriculum of learning from the time they begin lessons until the achievement of their goals. The club will provide professional staff to supervise and instruct the skating program for the attainment of desired skill levels in a safe, clean and healthy environment.
